The quarterly meeting of the Garden Grove Sanitary District Liaison Committee was called to order at Republic Services Headquarters located at 1131 N. Blue Gum Street in Anaheim on Wednesday, May 24, 2017, at 12:00 p.m.

ROLL CALL

PRESENT: Board President, Kris Beard

ABSENT: Board Member, Phat Bui

ALSO PRESENT: Finance Director, Kingsley Okereke; Public Works Manager, A.J. Holmon III; Sr. Administrative Analyst, Raquel Manson; Republic Services Representatives- Mark McGee, Dan Capener, Vikash Jhunjhunwala

AGENDA TOPICS

1. City Solid Waste Legislative Update

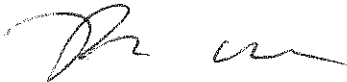

Discussion led by A.J. Holmon III and Republic Services Representatives. A power point presentation was distributed to the committee. The presentation outlined California's Recycling Plan to achieve a statewide diversion goal of 75% by 2020 that was adopted by the California Department of Resources Recycling and Recovery (CalRecycle). Legislation has been passed to support the efforts to achieve this ambitious statewide goal, of which include the adoption of AB 341 (Mandatory Commercial Recycling) in 2012 and the adoption of AB 1826 (Mandatory Commercial Organics Recycling) in 2016. Both legislation acts require the City and Hauler to offer recycling services, adopt program rates and initiate an active outreach program. These programs are subject to Calrecycle's formal jurisdiction reviews at any time, separate from the regular review cycle. These "at any time" reviews are Calrecycle's efforts to increase enforcement efforts to address the escalating tonnages at the statewide level, despite having the legislative acts in place. The City's existing programs comply with AB 341, with the exception of Calrecycle's new reporting requirement for recycling tonnages that will require an amendment to the existing agreement with Republic Services. Compliance for AB 1826 will require a source separated food scrap collection program with a designated trash bin for food scraps only. This program is in the development stage. Under this new program, the collection of food scraps will be processed at the Republic Services Materials Recovery Facility in Anaheim and then sold to multiple sources for the use of renewable energies or gas, processed from various anaerobic digesters located in Los Angeles, Orange County and the Inland Empire. This new program will require special infrastructure, equipment and a designated route system. Rate negotiations to support this new program is underway. As of April, Republic Services' commercial organic rate proposal is being evaluated by the recently hired consultant, HF&H Consultants. These consultants will negotiate rates with Republic Services, on behalf of the City. After the rates are negotiated, a proposed amendment to the existing franchise agreement on organic recycling programs and rates will be brought forward for Council consideration in August 2017.

Next meeting date will be held on July 26, 2017.

Meeting was adjourned at 1:30 p.m.

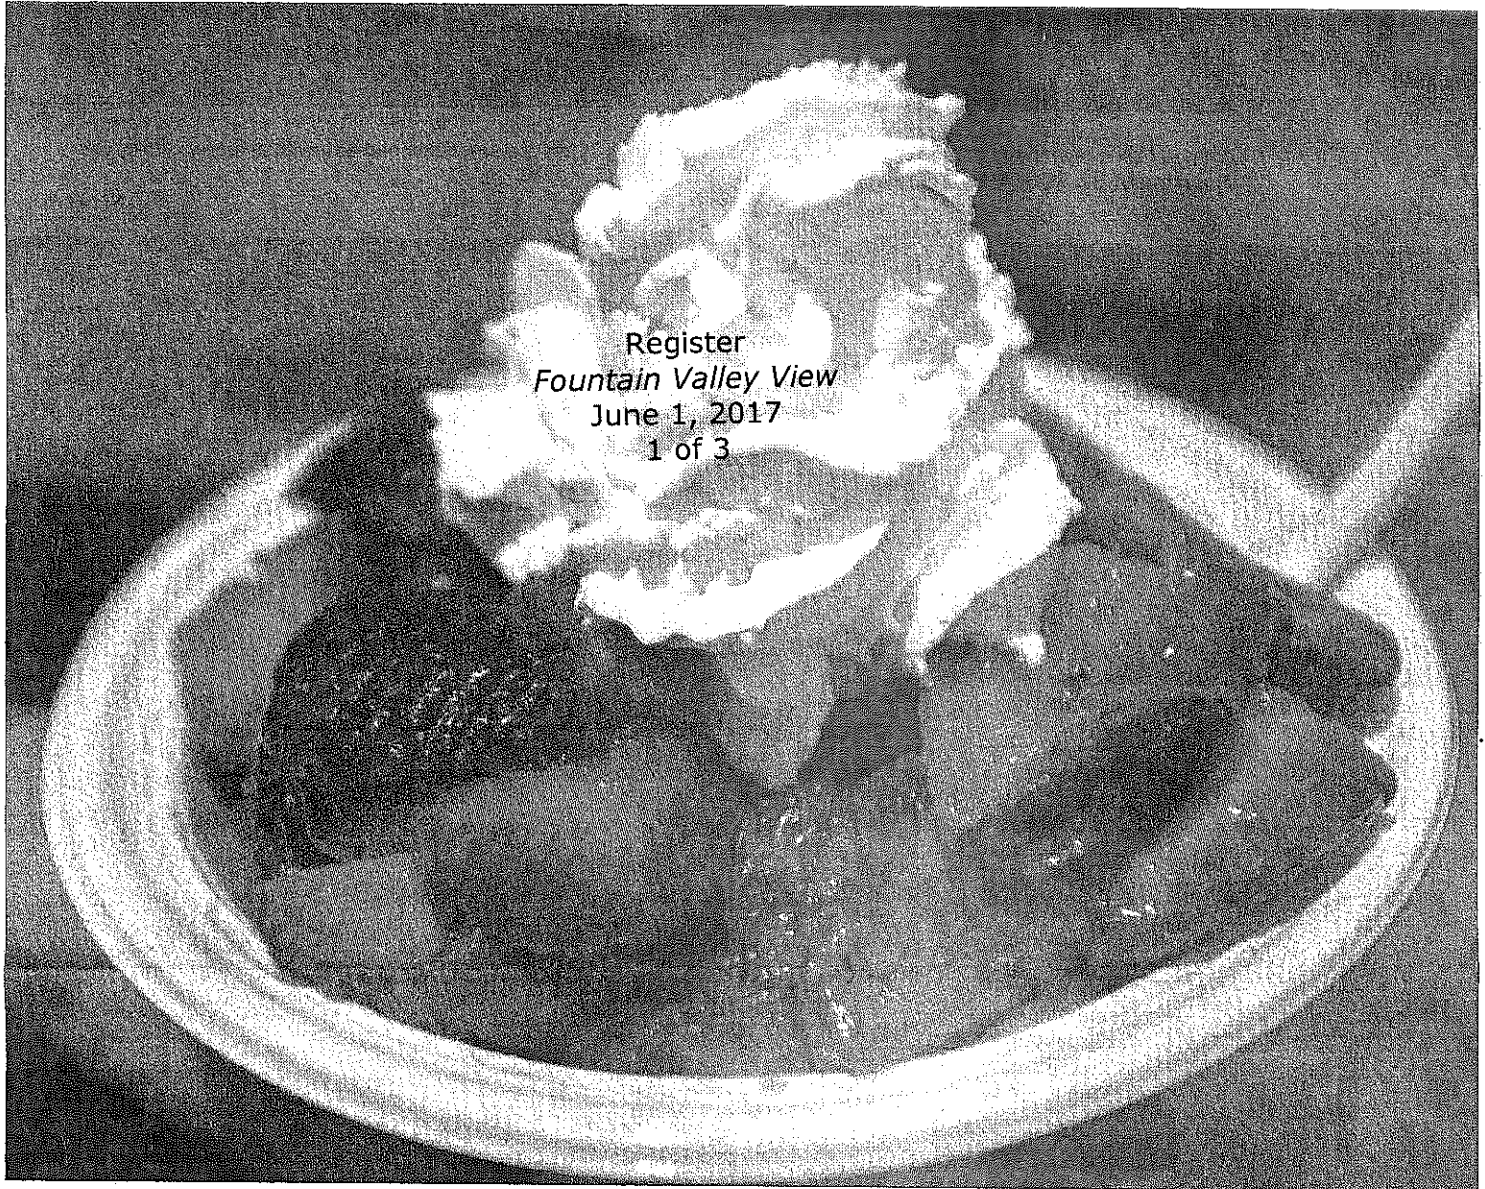

Respectfully submitted,

GARDEN GROVE STRAWBERRY FESTIVAL DRAWS THOUSANDS

In his freshman year of high school, David Cardenas waited 90 minutes to get a slice of strawberry shortcake at the annual Garden Grove Strawberry Festival.

Cardenas, 25, recalled waiting in line with his friends for the dish made of soft-serve vanilla ice cream, strawberries, strawberry syrup and an additional layer of whipped cream.

"It's the perfect blend of real fruit and ice cream," he said.

This year, he figured he'd beat the initial rush and line up on Sunday.

Cardenas joined thousands who brought lawn chairs and balloons to the 59th annual Strawberry Festival on Saturday, May 27. Sitting with his friends on a traffic median, he watched as floats, animals and marching bands passed near the corner of Euclid Street and Chapman Avenue.

He'd been going to the event since he was 7 years old.

"It gave me a sense of pride to be a part of the community," he said.

The four-day festival, which celebrates the city's farming history and raises money for local nonprofits, kicked off its Saturday festivities with a 5K run parade.

Burt Ward, who played Robin in the "Batman" television series, was celebrity grand marshal and earned cheers when he rode past in a black-and-red Batmobile, a classic car with three vertical exhaust pipes tucked between long black tail fins.

Randy Barth, who created THINK Together, a nonprofit offering learning programs for children, was the other grand marshal. Other volunteers were honored, including Peter Carter, who helped establish the CHOC walk for Children's Hospital of Orange County.

For nearly six decades, the festival has been held over Memorial Day weekend, attracting more than 300,000 people a year, organizers said, and offering 35 carnival rides and more than 200 booths.

In addition to bands and cheerleaders, the parade showcased Rancho La Laguna, a Norco-based group of sombrero-clad cowboys showing off their horses. Street vendors selling hand-held bubble-maker machines, emoji hats and inflatable Spider-Man toys also walked along the parade route.

Luis Perales sat in front of his home off Chapman Avenue with his grandson. For the past two decades, Perales has brought his family to watch the parade.

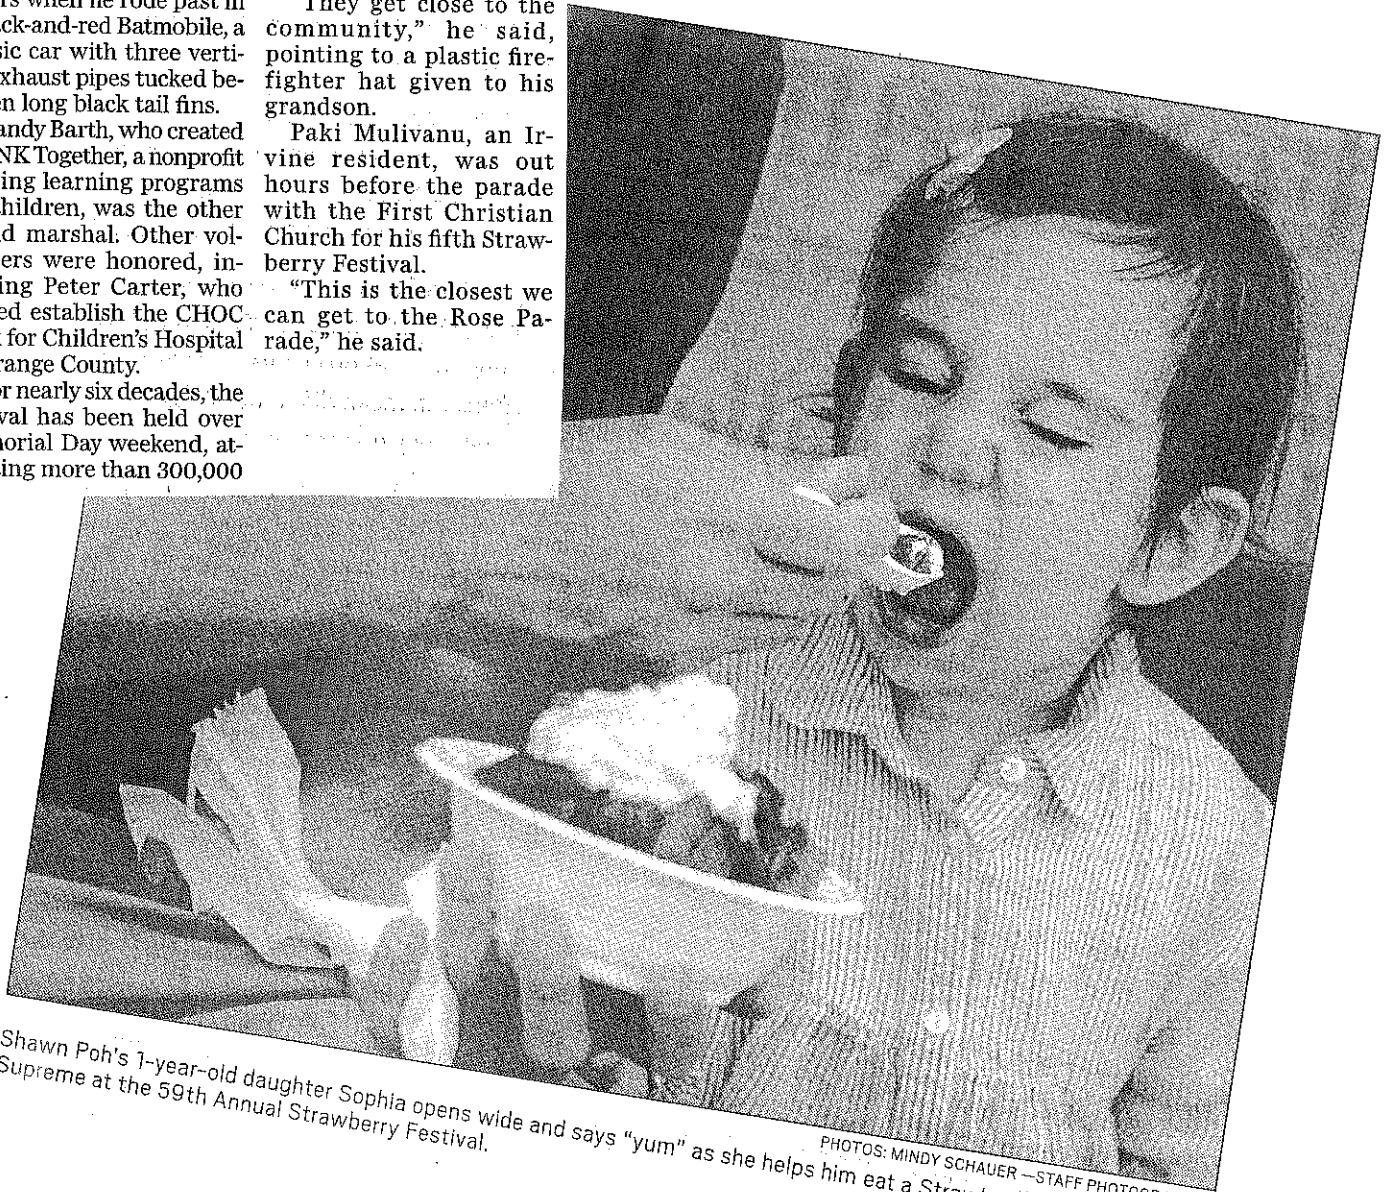

Perales said he liked getting to see the firefighters.

"They get close to the community," he said, pointing to a plastic firefighter hat given to his grandson.

Paki Mulivanu, an Irvine resident, was out hours before the parade with the First Christian Church for his fifth Strawberry Festival.

"This is the closest we can get to the Rose Parade," he said.

Getting Prop. 56 $$$ to kids is like pulling teeth

GG-based dental care exec outlines problems

By Ria Berger

In 2016, nearly 65 percent of California voters approved Proposition 56, the California Healthcare, Research And Prevention Tobacco Tax Act. The state began collecting the new revenue on April 1, and while the expected $1.2 billion in new revenue is intended to go toward increasing access to dental care for more than 13 million children, working adults and their families, the state has proposed redirecting the funds for other existing budget obligations.

In Orange County, there are more than 1 million people who depend on Medi-Cal for vital dental services and currently, they face significant barriers to access.

Access to dental care services might seem uncomplicated. But for tens of thousands of Californians – many of whom are children – getting proper treatment for a cavity or other basic dental services can be a challenge or virtually impossible. In fact, only one in three Medi-Cal children received any preventive dental care under the state's Denti-Cal program in 2015. For adults, it was one in 11.

Children in particular are most vulnerable. If left untreated, pediatric tooth decay and cavities can quickly accelerate into more serious health issues such as malnourishment and diabetes that could pose long-term risks,

DENTAL:

not to mention costs.

Why aren't our children getting the care they deserve? Because only 20 percent of dentists are able to accept Medi-Cal patients. Reimbursement rates for basic dental care are only 29 percent of commercial rates and significantly lower than the Medicaid average for the U.S., which the Little Hoover Commission says actually discourages dentists from serving Medi-Cal patients.

In Orange County, the lack of access to care has translated into a challenge for the more than 299,000 children who are enrolled in Medi-Cal.

Exacerbating the "access gap" is the fact that the reimbursement rate for dental service providers has not been increased in more than 17 years. As chief executive officer of one of the area's largest provider of dental services in Orange County, I can attest firsthand on the important role that good oral hygiene plays in overall childhood growth and successful development into healthy adults. It can make a difference in everything from school performance to self-esteem and overall social growth. When a child cannot see a dentist because the access to services simply isn't there, it is both tragic – and completely preventable.

For adults and seniors, the consequences can be severe. Cardiovascular disease, diabetes and other health issues can accelerate because of untreated oral and dental issues. As California's population continues to age, this can pose alarming health ramifications. California eliminated non-emergency adult dental care in 2009, and adult Medi-Cal patients didn't have access to preventive and restorative care until 2014.

Proposition 56 dollars are intended to expand access to dental care, including teledentistry services, mobile dental teams and mobile vans which are increasingly vital to reach California's more rural populations.

As lawmakers and the governor prepare next year's state budget, they should agree to include new funding from Proposition 56 to improve delivery and accessibility of dental care, raise reimbursement rates and increase services to underserved communities.

Located in Garden Grove, Ria Berger is Chief Executive Officer, Healthy Smiles Orange County, whose mission is to improve the oral health of children in Orange County through collaborative programs directed at prevention, outreach and education, access to treatment and advocacy.

BISHOP KEVIN VANN, holds up a letter signifying approval to complete renovations to Christ Cathedral during the ceremony May 23.

Ceremony marks upgrades, future at Christ Cathedral

BY KATHLEEN LUPPI

Christ Cathedral's $72.3-million construction project will formally begin June 1 and, when it reopens in 2019, will become the spiritual home to more than 1.3 million Orange County Catholics.

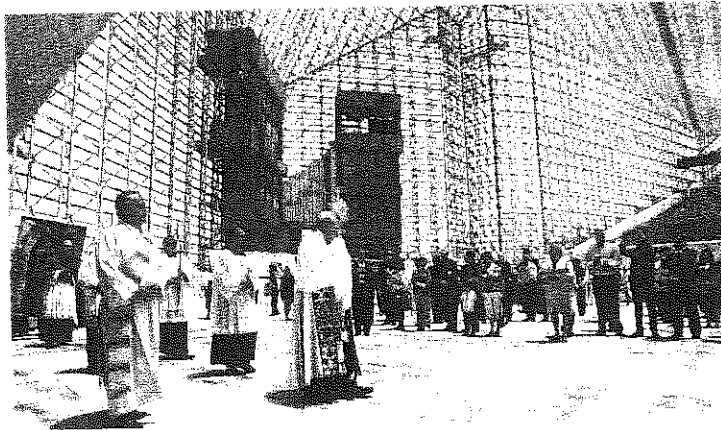

The Diocese of Orange celebrated the start of the renovation project May 23 with a contract-signing ceremony at the sanctuary's future renovated place of worship in Garden Grove. The site was once home to the Crystal Cathedral.

Bishop Kevin Vann signed the construction agreement with Irvine-based general contractor Snyder Langston, which has been selected to complete the renovation of the cathedral originally designed by architect Phillip Johnson and partner John Burgee.

Construction is to be completed in October 2018 with a formal dedication likely in early 2019.

More than 10,000 panes of the cathedral's mirrored glass already has been re-caulked and resurfaced, under budget and on schedule. Rev. Christopher Smith, rector and episcopal vicar, told guests at the signing ceremony.

Vann thanked participants involved in the reconstruction project and explained the cathedral's meaning to the community.

The contract signing is timely, as the Catholic Church has upcoming feast days ahead, Vann said, noting Pentecost Sunday on June 4 — often called the birth of the church — and the feast day of Saints Peter and Paul, who built the great basilicas in Europe, on June 29.

"Those temples signify the presence of Christ and have stood after all these centuries," Vann said.

Snyder Langston President and Chief Operating Officer John Rochford commented on the building company's excitement for the project.

"We saw this as an opportunity to take on a unique, high-end challenge, and our people will pour their heart and soul into this project," Rochford said.

"I'll be back in 20 months, sitting in the front row at Mass, and I'll still be a Catholic at that time," Rochford said to laughs.

A Eucharistic procession following the signing ceremony marked the first time the Blessed Sacrament — commonly known as Holy Communion, where wafers are given to the faithful — was presented in the Cathedral.

Guests and clergy exited through the main doors and walked around the perimeter of the sanctuary to the future site of the Blessed Sacrament chapel.

The arboretum is currently used as a place of worship by parishioners of St. Callistus until the renovation of Christ Cathedral is completed. The renovated cathedral will seat more than 2,000 people.

This year, the festival's grand marshal is Burt Ward, the original Boy Wonder — Robin — in the late 1960s "Batman" television series. Ward, 71, will be in the Strawberry Parade on Saturday and will sell dog food for his nonprofit Gentle Giants Rescue and Adoptions.

Ward, selected as grand marshal to complement the festival's theme of honoring local "superhero" volunteers, will ride in the parade in a replica of the 1960s Batmobile, said festival spokeswoman Judy Cooper.

"Burt Ward is a perfect fit because of the theme," Cooper said. "He does such great (charity) work, and he actually played a superhero."

Last year, the festival raised $150,000 that was donated to local nonprofits, the most it has raised in a single year.

Since 1958, the festival has collected more than $6 million for nonprofits. The nonprofit vendors who set up shop at the fair each year raise additional funds.

Besides carnival rides and all the strawberry shortcake you can eat, the festival has events such as a 5-kilometer run Saturday morning, a baby beauty contest and performances by several bands.

This year, Cooper said, the two dozen celebrities featured in the parade and the strawberry-shortcake-cutting ceremony are the most the festival has had — requiring her to turn down some celebrities.

"I'm always amazed at how happy they are and how much fun they have," Cooper said.

But the main star of the festival — as is the case every year — is Miss Garden Grove, who for 2017 is Missy Mendoza, 23, a Cal State Fullerton graduate.

During today's cake-cutting ceremony, she will receive her own cake from Garden Grove Mayor Steve Jones; on Sunday, she, her court and other pageant winners from across the state will perform in the Strawberry Festival Amphitheater.

"I've known about the festival since I was about 5 years old," Mendoza said. "It'll be different this year, because I'm Miss Garden Grove. ... It'll be great to interact with the community and see all the families."

'These students are heroes'

Three freshman students from Santiago High School were honored by the Garden Grove Fire Department during an assembly earlier this week for saving a classmate from drowning.

Garden Grove Fire Chief Tom Schultz awarded freshmen Angelo Mendoza, Daniel Gomez, and Cristina Contreras with the Fire Chiefs Coin, a special accolade, usually reserved for firefighters.

It is the highest honor for life-saving actions.

Chief Schultz praised the students for their quick actions, which saved the life of Christopher Tran, who sank to the bottom of the deep end of the school pool on April 28.

The students rescued Tran from the bottom of the pool and carried him to safety out of the pool. Garden Grove Fire Department paramedics Dave Carlson and Grant Noble responded and Tran successfully recovered at an area hospital with no lasting injuries.

The students were honored in front of their classmates and parents at Santiago High School. Also in attendance were Garden Grove Mayor Steve Jones, Santiago graduate and Garden Grove Councilman Kim Nguyen, and the Garden Grove Fire Department paramedics who responded to the near-drowning.

The City Council will honor the students during the city's Community Spotlight section of the council meeting next month.

"We are so proud that our students were able to think and act quickly in a split second to prevent what could have been a tragic drowning," said Walter Muneton, Garden Grove Unified School District Board of Education trustee.

ALDI OFFICIALLY OPENS IN GARDEN GROVE

Today, more than 300 attendees celebrated the grand opening of ALDI, located in the Promenade, at 9901 Chapman Avenue. Garden Grove Mayor Steve Jones and the City Council welcomed the grocer with an official ribbon-cutting ceremony.

"This is an exciting moment for our community! The Promenade has seen tremendous growth in the last five years with the expansion of new retail businesses and dine-in and take-out eateries. With the opening of ALDI, the City expects that growth to continue," commented Mayor Jones.

Garden Grove is the fourth city in Orange County to open an ALDI.

ALDI is considered to be the junior-anchor tenant in the center. The center estimates a generated sales tax at $14 million annually.

Last year, the center added five, new, quick-serve restaurant chains to its shopping plaza: Chipotle, Wingstop, Blaze Pizza, Yogurtland, and Panda Express. Renovations and enhancements were made to the Regal Cinemas, and the center's landscape and overall look. Additional parking was also added to accommodate the expansion of retail businesses.

In 2014, Garden Grove's second Wal-Mart store opened on the west-end of the plaza. In 2011, the center celebrated the grand opening of two major retail stores, Party City and PetSmart.

Since then, leasing activities have gone up considerably in the plaza and surrounding area.

Last month, the vacant retail building adjacent to the Promenade, located at the Pavilion Plaza West, 9852 Chapman Avenue, was acquired by Sterling Properties. The property, which was once a Vons Supermarket, was purchased for $11 million.

The City is currently assisting Sterling Properties with obtaining new tenants for the 76,000 square-foot building. The City has plans to enhance that area with new amenities that will provide residents and visitors with opportunities to shop and dine.

Bills Restricting Local Control over Contracting and Small-Cell Siting Move to the Floor

SB 540 (Roth) and Other League Supported Housing Blueprint Bills Also Move

Late this week the Senate and Assembly Appropriations Committees concluded their work on hundreds of bills pending on their Suspense Files. In scripted hearings the committee chairs revealed the fates of bills in rapid-fire: they were passed, passed with amendments, or held in committee. For more, see Page 2.

SB 540 (Roth) to Streamline and Increase Housing Production Passes Out of Key Senate Committee

Bill is part of the League of California Cities' "Blueprint for More Housing" Legislative Package

SB 540 (Roth) passed its fourth Senate committee on Thursday, May 25 when it cleared the Senate Committee on Appropriations. The bill, which has passed with bi-partisan support in each committee, now heads to the Senate Floor. SB 540 will give local governments new tools to plan for and approve workforce housing, and create a more streamlined path by eliminating some of the delays and uncertainty that currently block housing construction. For more, see Page 4.

Key Senate Committee Votes with the Wireless Industry to Strip Public Input, Full Local Review, and Ability for Cities to Negotiate Public Benefits for Installation of "Small Cell" Equipment on City Property

City Officials Encouraged to Call Senators Immediately to Oppose SB 649

SB 649 (Hueso) cleared the Senate Fiscal Committee on Appropriations and now heads to the Senate Floor. The bill now heads to the Senate Floor where it will be voted on next week. The League opposes this measure that strips public input, limits full discretionary review and removes the ability for cities/counties to negotiate leases for the installation of "small cell" technology on public property. For more, see Page 5.

While there were many bills of interest to the League pending on the Suspense Files, the major bills of interest — supported and opposed — continued to move. This sets the stage for floor votes next week when legislators return from the long weekend. All bills must pass the floor by Friday, June 2 or be held for the year.

Two major bills harmful to local control will be debated on the floor next week:

- AB 1250 (Jones-Sawyer) which drastically limits local ability to contract for services.
- SB 649 (Hueso) which restricts the ability of local agencies to control and collect rent from small cell siting by wireless companies on streetlights and other public infrastructure.

Three housing bills, comprising part of the Housing Blueprint supported by the League, will also be pending:

- SB 540 (Roth) offering streamlined housing permitting via comprehensive upfront land use and environmental reviews.
- SB 2 (Atkins) proposing a permanent funding source for affordable housing.
- SB 3 (Beall) proposing a $3 billion affordable housing bond.

City officials are encouraged to contact their legislators on these and other bills important to their communities.

"The League and its member cities recognize the important role that cities play in planning for and approving new housing," said Carolyn Coleman, League of California Cities executive director. "That's why the League is taking an active role in fashioning legislative solutions to our housing crisis."

Specifically, under SB 540 cities and counties would identify priority housing areas — called Workforce Housing Zones — within their boundaries. The local government would conduct enhanced planning, important environmental reviews and public engagement at the front end with specific details as to what type of housing would be built within the zone. Because the local government has fully conducted the extensive environmental reviews at the front-end, no project-specific additional environmental reviews would be necessary.

By some estimates, SB 540 would shave off one to two years off the development timeline without compromising environmental protection, public health, local control or the rights of citizens to participate in local land use decisions.

SB 540 is one piece of the League's "Blueprint for More Housing" legislative package. The League also supports SB 2 (Atkins) & SB 3 (Beall) to increase funding for affordable housing and boost housing supply. These two measures are also headed to the Senate Floor.

"Many have been critical of local governments for the lack of construction in our communities. These criticisms largely ignore the realities of the private housing market, the limited resources for affordable housing and the conditions that encourage or discourage new housing development," continued Coleman.

In fact, according to an informal survey of cities conducted by the League, throughout the state tens of thousands of housing units have been approved by local governments, but developers have not built because the market conditions are not right.

"We believe we can reform our housing laws to stimulate new housing production in a way that preserves local decision making and important opportunities for local community input," said Coleman. "There is much that we can do together this year to create a roadmap to new housing construction. The League of California Cities and its members stand ready to be part of responsible solutions."

Despite promises made in public that stakeholders would have the ability to negotiate provisions in the bill, SB 649 passed on a 6-0 vote on Thursday, May 25 without any amendments or resolution to address local government concerns.

While the wireless industry promises SB 649 will allow it to rapidly deploy 5G technology throughout the state to create thousands of jobs while maintaining local discretion, it is clear from the bill language that the intent is elsewhere.

The bill does not contain a requirement that the technology meet 5G or any standard. It does not require the wireless industry to build their networks in unserved or underserved communities. Instead of jobs, communities will lose their ability to control for blight. This in fact makes it tougher for cities to attract business because cities lose full discretion. If SB 649 becomes law, there will not be anyone left to hold the wireless industry accountable to ensure they even maintain their equipment or provide any negotiated public benefit.

Last week, the League testified in opposition to SB 649 and is calling out the wireless industry for the empty promises they're making to the Legislature in the name of "streamlining." Please see SB 649 — A "Small Cell" Bag of Empty Promises, CA Cities Advocate, May 16, 2017.

Next Step

SB 649 will be up for a vote on the Senate Floor next week. Cities are urged to call their senators immediately to voice their opposition to this measure.

A sample letter, along with the League's opposition letter is available at www.cacities.org/billsearch by plugging SB 649 into the search function.

President's Proposed Budget Would Eliminate CDBG, HOME; Cuts Other "Safety Net" Programs

Cities Encouraged to Communicate Concerns to Congress

President Donald Trump Administration's Fiscal Year 2018 Budget was released on Tuesday. Titled "A New Foundation for American Greatness," the proposal states that its defining ambition is to "unleash the dreams of the American people," with aggressive proposals aimed at balancing the federal budget, paying down the national debt, reducing taxes and regulatory burdens and reprioritizing federal spending. Increases are proposed in defense, homeland security, veteran's assistance and to support a new six-week parental leave program to be offset by eliminating many domestic programs that assist cities and their residents.

While individuals can differ over national debates over how to boost the nation's economy and reduce debt, the list of proposed cuts and elimination of programs important to cities in this budget (found in the budget's Major Savings and Reforms supplement) are truly sobering. Supporting rationale given for these proposed changes include the statement that "State and local governments are better positioned to address local community and economic development needs."

The President's proposed budget includes the proposed elimination and cuts to the following domestic programs:

- Eliminates the Community Development Block Grant program.
- Eliminates funding for the HOME Investment Partnerships Program, Choice Neighborhoods, and the Self-Help Homeownership Opportunity Program.
- Eliminates the federal Housing Trust Fund and National Magnet Fund.
- Eliminates the Department of Agriculture's Rural Business and Cooperative Service, Rural Water Waste and Disposal Program Account and Single Family Housing Direct Loans. Requires states to provide 25 percent matching funding, and retailers to pay $250 to $20,000 applications fees, for the Supplemental Nutritional Assistance Program (Food Stamps).
- Eliminates the Department of Commerce's Economic Development Administration, Manufacturing Extension Partnership, Minority Business Development Agency and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Grants and Education.
- Eliminates several programs at the Department of Energy including the Weatherization Assistance Program.
- Eliminates the Community Services Block Grant Program and the Low Income Home Energy Assistance Program, and reduced funding for Temporary Assistance for Needy Families by 10 percent, at the Department of Health and Human Services.
- Eliminates, at the Department of Homeland Security, Transportation Security Administration Law Enforcement Grants and the Flood Hazard Mapping and Risk Analysis Program, and five components of existing Federal Emergency Management Agency Programs, while requiring a new 25 percent local match on others.
- Eliminates funding for the State Criminal Alien Assistance Program and funding for Migrant and Seasonal Farmworker Training, and the Senior Community Service Training Program, while reducing funding for the Office of Disability Policy by 30 percent and job training under the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act by 39 percent, at the Department of Labor.
- Eliminates the Green Climate Fund and the Global Climate Change Initiative under the Departments of State, UAAID and Treasury.
- Eliminates TIGER grants, Essential Air Service, and cuts funding for New Starts and Amtrak by approximately half at the Department of Transportation.
- Eliminates new grants to the Community Development Financial Institutions Fund at the Treasury.
- Eliminates Energy Star and Voluntary Climate programs, while reducing funding for enforcement by 24 percent and Superfund sites by 31 percent at the Environmental Protection Agency.
- Eliminates a number of independent agencies including the Chemical Safety Board, the Corporation for Public Broadcasting, the Institute for Museum and Library Services, National Endowment for the Arts, National Endowment for the Humanities, Legal Services Corporation, and Neighborhood Reinvestment Corporation.

The National League of Cities (NLC) has prepared a more extensive summary of cuts.

Next Steps

It is important to note that this budget is merely an initial proposal. Congress must ratify these proposals and in the days since its release many Congressional members have expressed concerns for the major cuts proposed by the Administration. It is very important, however, for California's Congressional delegation to hear from city officials about their concerns.

NLC has an advocacy tool to help their member cities send letters to their Congressional delegation.

The League of California Cities has prepared a sample letter for cities to use.

June 1 Legislative “Half-Time” Briefing on Priority Bills

Sports fans know that the final outcome is always decided after halftime; it's no different in the California Legislature. June is “half-time” for the Legislative Session, when all bills cross houses and the budget comes together. The Legislature returns after Memorial Day with a heavy workload of floor votes, a budget to adopt by June 15, and the task of processing “second house” bills in policy committees before Summer Recess begins on July 21.

The League is offering a free webinar on June 1 for members to focus on the many remaining pending issues important to cities. The League's legislative team will brief members on top priority bills and issues, including the budget, cap and trade, marijuana regulation, housing and land use, local contracting authority, small cell siting, environmental quality, and public safety.

This webinar will provide you with the information on priority bills that you will need to successfully advocate on behalf of your city.

Please register for this free webinar at www.cacities.org/events by 10 a.m. on Thursday, June 1. Webinar log-in information will be sent by noon on June 1.

For most League webinars, we allow only one connection per city. However, due to the capacity for this webinar, we are allowing two connections per city to provide easier access for our members.

This webinar is free to League member cities and League Partners. Non-member cities will be charged $100 per login.

For registration questions, please contact Megan Dunn.

League Supports Legislation to Crack Down on Ex-Offenders Who Violate Terms of Post Release Community Supervision AB 1408 Eligible for Floor Vote this Week

The League of California Cities® announced its support for AB 1408 (Calderon), which will tighten up the rules in dealing with wayward ex-offenders on post-release community supervision. This legislation is a direct response to the increasing threat that California communities face as a result of multiple criminal justice reform measures geared toward decriminalization and reduced penalties for illegal activity.

Increased and sustained theft crimes have long been a reality in the wake of 2011's AB 109, 2014's Proposition 47, which changed a host of felony offenses to misdemeanors, and Prop. 57 from just last year, which altered the rules on charging juveniles as adults and ushered in other changes related to earning time off a sentence in state prison.

In February 2017, a violent incident in Whittier involving offenders on post-release community supervision (PRCS), which resulted in the death of a police officer and the wounding of another, revealed deficiencies in how such offenders are monitored, tracked and disciplined. The Whittier officers were involved in a shooting with ex-offenders, at least one of whom had previously violated the terms of his PRCS three times.

Among the deficiencies in current law that contributed to the Whittier tragedy are inadequate guidance in responding to those who are multiple violators of the terms of their supervision once released, rules that prevent the Parole Board from considering an inmate's entire criminal history in determining whether to grant parole, and a system that fails to share with local law enforcement pertinent information regarding an inmate's record of supervision while under the jurisdiction of the Parole Board.

AB 1408 addresses those deficiencies by imposing the following changes:

- Increases offender data in regard to the record of supervision that the Department of Corrections must share with local law enforcement for offenders under post-release community supervision;
- Mandates the state Parole Board to take an offender's entire criminal history into consideration in weighing whether to grant parole — not just his or her most recent commitment offense; and
- Requires modification/revocation of community supervision for offenders who have already violated the terms of post-release community supervision three times, and prohibits lesser interim sanctions.

The League is pleased to support this measure, which has enjoyed strong bipartisan support in its path through the Legislature and is eligible for a vote on the Assembly Floor this week.

Next Step

Cities are urged to call their assembly members immediately to voice their support for this measure.
