MATTERS FROM COMMISSIONERS: Vice Chair Brietigam commented that public safety was the primary function of city government and that Garden Grove's Police and Fire Departments were understaffed, especially with Propositions 47, 57, and Assembly Bill 109, and that with the release of prisoners from jails, law enforcement was challenged. His challenge to the City was to hire 200 sworn police officers and five additional fire fighters by the year 2020.

Commissioner Lazenby noted that the Engineering Division responded to his inquiry regarding convention center overflow parking into the adjacent neighborhoods. Staff recommended that residents start a petition for the City to provide signage for no parking in the residential zones.

Commissioner Lehman commented that in the neighborhood off of Katella Avenue, between Gilbert and Brookhurst Streets, the apartment area was blighted with graffiti and discarded items in the street. Staff would have Code Enforcement look into the matter.

Commissioner Truong mentioned that as a runner in west Garden Grove, she encountered broken street pavements, which were dangerous, and also asked if there was a tree plan for the area to buffer increasing exhaust. Staff relayed that Public Works did ongoing street maintenance and the matter would be looked into.

Chair Kanzler asked if the Planning Commission meetings could start at 6:30 p.m. Staff responded that the procedural mechanism would be researched noting that any change would require the adoption of a resolution. Staff then mentioned that 7:00 p.m. was established due to complaints from the public at not having enough time to get to the meetings after work and/or dinner.

Chair Kanzler mentioned that the Power Point presentation was helpful and asked if staff could do more. Staff responded that only the more complex agenda items would warrant presentations.

MATTERS FROM STAFF: Staff stated that the May 4th meeting would be cancelled and that the May 18th meeting would be an Alcoholic Beverage Control Study Session. James Colegrove, the new Police representative for Planning Commission, was introduced.

ADJOURNMENT: At 8:30 p.m. to the next Regular Meeting of the Garden Grove Planning Commission on Thursday, May 4, 2017, at 7:00 p.m. in the Council Chamber of the Community Meeting Center, 11300 Stanford Avenue, Garden Grove.
